		)	OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

An initial appearance and hearing on a petition for violation of supervised release was held before the undersigned Magistrate Judge on April 11, 2006. The United States was represented by Assistant United States Attorney Karen Johnson, and the defendant by Mr. Jeff Smith. The proceedings were recorded on cassette tape.

The defendant had been charged and convicted of Burglary, Second Degree in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1153 and 13. On or about October 22, 2004, defendant was sentenced by the Honorable John C. Coughenour to twenty-seven (27) months imprisonment to be followed by three (3) years of supervised release.

The conditions of supervised release included the requirements that the defendant comply with all local, state, and federal laws, and with the standard conditions. Special conditions imposed, but not limited to, were substance-abuse and mental-health treatment participation, consenting to search, and disclosure.

In a Petition for Warrant or Summons and a Violation Report and Warrant Request, both

01 dated March 31, 2006, U.S. Probation Officer Margaret Kellow asserted the following violations
02 by defendant of the conditions of his supervised release:

03 (1) Failing to reside in and satisfactorily participate in a community corrections center
04 and/or comprehensive sanction center program, on or about March 20, 2006, in violation of the
05 special condition that he reside in the CCC until discharged by the director, with the approval
06 of the probation officer.

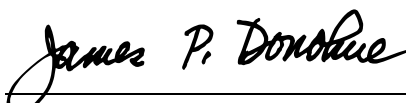

07 (2) Failing to notify the probation officer of any change in employment, in violation
08 of standard condition number 6.

09 The defendant was advised of the allegations and his rights. He has admitted to the 10 allegations and waived any rights to an evidentiary hearing as to whether they occurred.

11 I therefore recommend that the Court find the defendant to have violated the terms and
12 conditions of his supervised release as to violations 1 and 2, and that the Court conduct a
13 hearing limited to disposition. A disposition hearing on these violations has been set before the 14 Honorable John C. Coughenour on April 28, 2006, at 9:00 a.m.

15 Pending a final determination by the Court, the defendant has been detained, but has 16 requested a detention review hearing, which has been set before the Honorable Mary Alice
17 Theiler, United States Magistrate Judge, on April 20, 2006, at 3:45 p.m.

18 DATED this 11th day of April, 2006.
